Another Swearing Ceremony Coming Soon

Judicial will have another small swearing in ceremony in the near future, stay tuned for more info if you have not been able to attend one yet.

Interpretation of Digital Files

Are you being asked to interpret “digital files”, such as an ASL video on a phone or a vlog? If so, please let me know what type(s) of video file you have been asked to interpret. I am collecting data to see if this is becoming an issue like it is for language interpreters.

CCDHH Website Update

Due to maintenance issues with our current website, we are changing platforms again. There is still time to add additional information or resources, so let me know if there is something you would like to see on the new website that is not currently there. We are hoping to roll out the new one in the next few months.

Support Service Providers (SSP’s) Needed

As mentioned last month, CCDHH now has a DeafBlind Services program. The DeafBlind Services Coordinator, Ryan Hawkins, will be building a list of those who have experience working with the deafblind as SSP’s. If you have experience as an SSP or are interested in learning more about it, contact Ryan at

Ryan.hawkins@state.co.us

Thanks for all you do!
